- Date/Time: Sunday, April 6th, approximately 5:58am
- Location: Highland Pharmacy, located at 301 Rogers Road in Glasgow
- Description of Events: Two suspects pulled in front of the pharmacy in a white Chrysler 300C sedan. A large frame male exited the driver's side front door and approached the front of the pharmacy carrying a tool. A second suspect joined him. After prying open the front door, the first suspect returned to the vehicle, dropped off the pry bar and removed a plastic "tote" from the front passenger seat. Both entered the pharmacy. Once inside, the two methodically searched for and removed what appeared to be pain medication. After approximately three minutes, the two exited the pharmacy and drove off in the direction they came from.
Several similar incidents matching this burglary have occurred throughout TN, KY and possibly MO.
- Suspect Description: Suspect #1 is described as a large figured male wearing a camouflage jacket and pants and ski mask. Suspect #2 is described as a smaller figured male wearing a camouflage jacket and pants and ski mask. It is believed that both are Caucasians; however, this has not as yet been confirmed.
